

Annual Catovsky Prize

- Call for Abstracts -

The Annual Catovsky Prize was established in 2006 by the UK CLL Forum in recognition of the outstanding contribution that Professor Daniel Catovsky has made to the field of clinical and scientific CLL research.

All non-tenured CLL researchers are invited to submit an abstract of their unpublished research work for consideration by the UK CLL Forum Executive Committee. We are particularly encouraging young investigators at the beginning of their careers to submit their interesting findings and take the opportunity to gain experience in presenting, discussing their data and forging fruitful collaborations.

As this year's UK CLL Forum Clinical Sciences Day will be held as a hybrid event, 4 presentations will be selected for oral presentation, with the winner being announced during the meeting on Friday 8th October 2021.

A £500 prize will be awarded for the best submission.

Abstracts of 250 words or less should be submitted by email to Dr Alison Michie - Alison.Michie@glasgow.ac.uk - by Friday 3rd September.

Successful authors will be notified by email as soon as possible after this deadline.

Kind regards

UK CLL Forum Executive Committee
